THE BRIDEGROOM DID NOT APPEAR. Miss Barbara Stillmatter, a prepossessing young woman, living with her parents at No. 380 Rodney-st., was to have been married on Tuesday evening to Patrick Byrnes, of No. 59 south Second-st. When the hour arrived for the ceremony Byrnes failed to appear. A messenger was sent to his house, where it was learned that he had not been seen for two days When this message was brought to the disappointed bride she became hysterical, and was carried to her room. It was found necessary to summon a physician, The guests, who had assembled with the minister who was to have performed the ceremony, were dismissed. All efforts on the part of the family to learn something of the missing man failed. Byrnes was employed as he engineer in Greenpoint, and his mysterious dis-appearance has caused much alarm among his friends, one are mable to account for his fight. He appeared devotedly attached to his intended bride.

HOW THE PICTURES WERE SMUGGLED.

AN EXAMINATION BY APPRAISERS LOWERS THEIR REPUTED VALUE.

There was another hearing before United States Commissioner Shields yesterday in the case of Ludovic de Spiridon, who is charged with having smuggled late this country a number of paintings in August late this country a number of panutage in No. 74
1887. Noel Kentish, a picture dealer of No. 74
West Fittlethest., who informed against Spiridon, testified and described how the pictures were smuggled.
On August 15, 1887, he went to meet spiridon at the FISHER ISLAND.-Charles W. Gordon, of Suffolk parrival of the steamer La Bourgogne. G. Ellero and FISHER ISLAND.—Charles W. Lordon, County, was yesterday appointed by Governor Flower County, was yesterday appointed by Governor Flower E. Marcht also met Spiriden. The latter came on a Coroner in place of Albert J. Holbrook, who was inspector was not looking, Ellero took the "hold-all" which had not been examined, and threw it against a trunk, having the inspector's chalk mark on it, and the impression of the chalk was transferred to the "hold all. They kept the inspector from having his attention drawn to the package, threw it among the examined buggage, and then took it in a carriage to Pellegini's hotel, at Fourteenthst, and Irving Place. spiridon, Ellero, the witness and Miss Marie Halpin went in the carriage. At the hotel the "hold all" was spened. It contained about thirty unmounted pictures. They were sent to Noble & Sevem, gliders, at No. 118 East Thirteenthst., and there mounted. The witness saw them after-ward in Philadelphia, New-York and Washington. He made a catalogue of some of them before they were sent to Minneapolis, where they were seized. The witness identified these pictures in the room as among Spiridon had told him that he those smuggled. generally brought in his pictures in that way. On cross examination Kentish denied that he had ever stolen pictures from spiridon. The latter had given him some for money advanced. He admitted that his relations, were not friendly with Spiridon, and that was the reason for his acting as informer. The cas went over until Friday. Expert examiners from the Appraiser's Department made an examination yesterday of the sixty-one pictures that have been seized within the last few weeks by Special Inspector Traitteur and Inspector brown. All of these pictures were said to have been smuggled into the country by Mr. Spiridon. The first of taken consisted of three paintings alleged to be by Losik, Ling and Isabey. They were declared to be worth not less than $6,000. The examiners appraised them yesterday at $70. The fifty-eight other pictures bore the signatures of leading French artists, among bore the signatures of leading French artists, among others, Millet, Corot, Diaz, De Neuville and Melssonier. It was said that these paintings were worth, at a conservative estimate, $30,000. The experts declare that only one out of the fifty-eight is a genuine work, and that that one is merely an antinished study. The rest are copies made by students and are worth from $10 to $25 each, including frames. The officials at the Custom House are now wondering what prices Mr. spiridon got from his customers for these works of art.

ANOTHER SLASHER SENTENCED.

William Waters, whom Judge Cowing called Slasher o. 2, was convicted of assault in the second degree yesterday in the Court of General Se-sions, and sen-tenced to five years' imprisonment, the extreme penalty. He lives at No. 16 Roosevelt-st., and cut penalty. He lives at No. 18 Roosevelt-st, and cut James Connors, sixteen years old, of the same place, with a razor on the leg, inflicting a wound fourteen inches long. Connors went from his room to the rooms of James Driscoll, on the first floor, to get some soap. As he went back to the room by Waters's door, the latter rushed out and slashed him. The enting was entirely without provocation. Driscoil said that after the arrest Waters said to him: "This is the second man I have cut, and when I get out of here, I'll cut you, too." ONE MILLION DOLLARS ARE NEHDED.

sixth-st. For the constitution capacity to contain the interproof building of sufficient capacity to contain the library, art and archaeological collections, and a suitable reading room and lecture hall, the sum of $1,000,000 is required. The total inadequacy of the present structure emphasizes the appeal which the fellowing committee, on behalf of the society, now makes to the public for funds Cornelius N.
